Biblical passage, Exodus 20:8-10: "Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor, and do all of thy work, etc."

Mr. Jones, for your own sake, and for that of the City of Detroit, and the entire State of Michigan, I beg of you to revoke this new policy, and CLOSE YOUR STORES ON SUNDAY. You may have gotten a few new customers on Sunday, but you have surely alienated many of your good customers, and you have lost the respect of many employees, who wish to reserve Sunday for worshipping God. By tearing down the tradition of worshipping on one day of the week, you are surely contributing toward the lowering of moral standards in America. If it were not for the teachings of the Bible, as expounded in our churches, it would be waste for you to do business at any time. There would be much for thieves than there is now.

Please reconsider your decision to keep your stores open on Sunday, and advise me to that effect. The folks in our Sunday School considered this matter on Sunday, and share my views as expressed above.

Sincerely,

Roy C. Gamble
